Kelly is known for her forensic analysis of evidence, persuasive written submissions and ability to manage large litigation and arbitration.

Kelly has appeared as Counsel in the Supreme Court, Land Court, District Court and Federal Court of Australia. Since coming to the Bar, Kelly has predominantly appeared in administrative review matters and complex commercial matters.

Kelly has appeared in a number of significant administrative review matters including Citigold Corporation Limited v. Chief Executive, Department of Environment and Heritage Protection (No 5) [2016] QLC 62 and Xstrata Coal Queensland Pty Ltd & Ors v. Friends of the Earth - Brisbane Co-Op Ltd & Ors, and Department of Environment and Resource Management [2012] QLC 013.

Most recently, Kelly was Counsel in an international arbitration under the ICC Rules of Arbitration. Kelly also has a personal injuries practice and in 2013 was engaged to undertake quantum assessments of claimants in two separate class actions. She is an AAI Limited approved panel Barrister.

Kelly is a nationally accredited mediator and is the General Editor of the LexisNexis Alternative Dispute Resolution Bulletin. She holds a statutory appointment as a General Referee on the Queensland Government Development Tribunal and is also appointed to the Land Court ADR Panel as a panel mediator for the Land Court.

Holding a Masters of Law in International Trade (Maritime), Kelly has a particular interest in law of the sea, marine insurance and transport, international trade and arbitration. She has recently appeared in the Federal Court with respect to a vessel lost at sea and has experience in the arrest of ships and various types of cargo and insurance matters.

Kelly is on the committee of the Australian Mining and Petroleum Law Association. She is an accomplished presenter and regularly presents at national and state conferences.
